Arrakis # 80
Feb 17, 1978

This is the big number 80, although we don't have anything special to mark the event. We have 5 signed up for Doug's game of Diplomacy and the Mastermind is still in need of some warm bodies. Gamefees for the Diplomacy game are $2 plus a sub. There is not a gamefee for the Mastermind. Subs are 1¢/page plus postage. Postage will be 14¢ before too long@&%%#! And as you must know we are:

Doug Hayward Box 291 Huntsville, Ont. POA 1K0 705-789-5606
David Head Box 1231 " " " " 705-789-5432

We might as well sort out the games first and then see if we have room for anything else.

London: Tell me Mr. Stiege, has anybody written you in this game?!

Venice to London: Thank-you for you compliments; it brightens my day to see people in abject misery.

Moscow to Berlin: The Hun shows his true colour! An army on Russian soil and you tell me to "get out" of Scandinavia! Where in the rulebook does it say that Norway and Sweden are yours to do with as you please? Perhaps I shall move an army to Silesia and tell you to get out of Denmark. Obviously you haven't noticed that I've been fighting for my very survival in this game from move one while you've been marching leisurely into the Lowlands, Denmark and now England and Norway. Enough! I demand Norway back and control of the Baltic then we can talk peace. Refuse and it's Berlin or bust for the Russians—no quarter given and no stopping until it's done.

Austria a ser to rum or disband. Fall is due on March 17.

Rome to Paris: Try to hold out, Turkish and Italian fleets will be there in the near future.

Rome to Constantinople: If my move to ser is successful I will then support your A bul-rum. Also, to avoid any future confusion I will continue my tri-ser move until ser falls. I can't move any fleets to help France until ser falls, but you can send your f aeg to France. In the Fall I will support your f bla-bul (from gre) and you can move your f arm-bla.

Paris: Ha Ha. The French have done it again. And now, Russia is on England's back. Good luck Turkeys. Let's see if London can withstand an attack.

Paris to Rome: I would appreciate a fleet to help push England back.

More press on the next page.....

More press for Nf

Constantinople to Rome: I know my move to the Ionian appears aggressive, but I assure you, I have no interest in attacking you, my only ally..We must prevent the fall of France or the game is over for both of us. As you can see, I did as promised (support to ser). I would appreciate support for my a bul-rum move in the fall.

London to Stp: I was happy to see you move out of Norway and will welcome your fleet's support against the French. I hope that you and Germany will not go to war over him taking Sweden from you. I imagine that he thought you were stabbing me. I will support you into one of the French centres (bre, spa, or por) if you will consider that a fair trade for Sweden.

London to Berlin: If you do not take Belgium in the Spring I will move f eng-pic in the Fall to cut support and help you take Belgium then. I hope that you and Russia do not go to war over your attempt to protect me. I would like our next fight to be with Italy not Russia. I would like to get some Italian centres before Turkey gets them all. How do you suggest we split up the Italian centres?

Berlin to London: One step too late again, but if you did a repeat we're golden again. Lets bear down this time.

Berlin to Rome: Sorry you're so against my visiting France. Wouldn't it have been easier to let me pass by years ago.

Ankara: Turkey declares a treaty of peace between Russia and all Turkish forces, so Russia may fight to hold back the invaders from the north. The former Kaiser Hollingsworth has been placed in charge of the Black Sea Fleet of the Imperial Turkish Navy. If Italy will advise Turkey as to how it can help it will do so.

HEADLINE: FATHERS OF CONFEDERATION ALL BACHELORS CANADA PROVE ILLEGITIMATE

Historic Monument Dept.:

Inscribed on a historic plaque near a boulder on the bank of the Mackenzie River, Norman Wells, NWT.:

Upon this stone on August 2nd, 1789, sat Alexander Mackenzie whilst fighting mosquitoes and planning his present (Imperial Oil Company) refinery. Since that date this stone has been a saluting point for dogs, foxes, and wolves, in honour of the man who led the missionaries, fur traders, tuberculosis and tin cans down this great river to the Polar Sea.

Lacking matches, cigarettes, radio, Esso gasoline, rubber boots and tissue paper, Mackenzie made the roundtrip from Lake Athabaska to the Frozen Ocean in 102 days, in a bark canoe powered by internal combustion Indians. Modern pioneers complain if the toast is cold or the mail plane is late.

Once again there's no shortage of press:

London-Berlin: You must have been joking! I hope you didn't really believe I would move out of the North Sea and attack Russia, did you?
No Englishman in his right mind would vacate the North Sea!

London-St. Petersburg: May I suggest that you not embroil yourself in this? You have enough troubles without me attacking you up north.
Make it known that I will support you as long as you are being attacked down south.

London-Rome: I hope you realize that once Austria/Turkey finish off Russia, it's you that's next, no matter what they tell you. If you're intent on attacking France, go ahead, but I'm sure he would be open to negotiations.

The GALLERY: The GALLERY is a press release that will appear three times a year. It will contain news of the "ALLCANADA" game and will retaliate to press that is released by the great powers.

- The game here on in will be a struggle for each and every country.
Therefore the GALLERY will release the track record for each member of this contest; - MacLellan, a dull, very conservative player but dangerous 3-1; Johnston, a player that has been around 4-1; Ronald, write him off at 3-1; Flight, watch him closely 5-1; Levy, forget him 15-1, Stiege, an experienced player, best qualified 3-1; George, a rookie 10-1.

The big news of the first year is the Southern Axis. MacLellan and George are flapping their mouths about their great alliance which no doubt will fold within two years. The GALLERY is writing off this so called Axis for no other reason than George being a rookie.

The western fight is already a mess. The biggest surprise is the British army in Belgium. Either it is a freak accident or the British have some kind of pact with the French. As a matter of fact at this moment the possibility of a Eng-Fre-Ita alliance is very good. If this is true then the rest of the countries are in trouble.

If any news in this release rubs you the wrong way then send in an official report to Hayward and he might print it. This is an underground news release.

Ankara: The Turkish press questioned Mr. George about the recent release from Moscow. In addressing the nation and his ally Mr. George stated, "I understand that Mr. Stiege is a little hot under the collar about the Southern Axis. Well, I have news for him - he should be!

Mr. MacLellan and I have created a solid axis which will not fall because of some radical communist who will shoot his mouth off occasionally. Our countries are now one. You look out this window in head office and what do you see? You see the Austrian flag flying high beside our honoured flag. Mr. Stiege will have to realize that we are not only an Axis, we are brothers."

Later that day Mr. George got a warm hand from the Turkish house. Mr. George pushed a bill through the next day declaring war on Russia. The bill was accepted as it got 79% of the house's vote. Another bill accompanied it stating that Mr. MacLellan will, from Spring 1903 be Turkey's "Head of Foreign Relations". That bill was narrowly passed with a 57% majority.

WHEN THE ICE WORM NESTS AGAIN - by Bobby Acheson

There's a dusky husky maiden in the Arctic,
And she waits for me but it is not in vain,
For some day I'll put my mukluks on and ask her
If she'll wed me when the ice worms nest again.

In the land of the pale blue snow where it's ninety-nine below,
And the polar bears are roaming o'er the plain,
In the shadow of the pole I will clasp her to my soul;
We'll be married when the ice worms nest again.

For our wedding feast we'll have seal oil and blubber;
In our kayaks we will roam the bounding main;
All the walruses will look at us and rubber;
We'll be married when the ice worms nest again.

When some night at half-past two I return to my igloo,
After sitting with a friend who was in pain,
She'll be waiting for me there with the hambone of a bear,
And she'll beat me till the ice worms nest again.

((I always thought that there must be something other than the lure of the big money that kept you going up there Robert)).

1. Ron Kelly said he enjoyed the "Dear Peggy" article. Peggy NMR'd.
 2. Speaking of Peggy, in 1975EX she in the strange position of having one centre (por) but no units and no way of building any.
 3. There will be no Torontocon this year.
 4. John Leeder has all sorts of variant openings in Runestone. The game-fee is $2.50 and the sub is the same rate as ours. He has openings in Flintlock II, Madman, Imperator and Sacred Rhino.
